

Dave Malkoff

Storyteller

Dave Malkoff is The Chief Environmental Correspondent and host of the "Weather Channel Explores" documentary series on America's most trusted news network. He is widely considered one of the most respected journalists in the field of environmental reporting and has a reputation for being a skilled storyteller and an authentic, steady voice in times of crisis.

Work History

2012 - present Chief Environmental Correspondent

The Weather Channel, Atlanta

Placed in charge of climate coverage for The Weather Channel television network in The United States and around the world.

Reported live from some of the world's most dramatic and significant events. Interviewed world leaders, traveled to the Arctic several times to cover the impact of melting glaciers on sea level rise in the United States.

Frequently contributed The Today Show, NBC Nightly News, MSNBC, CNBC, CBS Mornings & BBC Breakfast covering some of the biggest stories of our time.

2010 - 2012 Television News Reporter

KTLA-TV, Los Angeles

Reported and produced a nightly featured segment, with a focus on technology and human interest. In 2010, embedded with the US government during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

2007 - 2010 Television News Reporter

KCBS-TV, Los Angeles

Nightly featured segment on CBS Los Angeles. Contributor to CBS News network, covering breaking news and in-depth feature stories, including coverage of California wildfires and the death of Michael Jackson.

Reported on technology advancements and industry events, such as the launch of the iPhone, the Consumer Electronics Show, and the transition to digital broadcast television.

2004 - 2007 Television News Reporter

WFOR-TV, Miami

General Assignment Reporter for CBS Television Stations and CBS News, covering news in South Florida, the Caribbean, and the Southeast United States. Demonstrated versatility and quick response in covering major events, including being one of the only reporters to cover Hurricane Katrina from its early stages as a tropical storm in the Bahamas to its impact in the Lower 9th Ward of New Orleans.

2003 - 2004 Television News Reporter

KRON-TV, San Francisco

2000 - 2003 Television News Reporter

KTNV-TV, Las Vegas

1999 - 2000 Television News Reporter

WICD-TV, Champaign, IL

1996 - 1999 Associate Producer

WBNS-TV, Columbus, Ohio

Education

Political Science

The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio

Personal Info

Email

dave@davemalkoff.com

Phone

310-405-1400

LinkedIn

linkedin.com/in/davemalkoff

Website

davemalkoff.com

YouTube

youtube.com/davemalkoff

Skills

Strong storytelling and audience connection skills

International reporting experience

Ability to work under pressure

Strong ability to produce high-quality, engaging content.

Adaptability

Software

Adobe Premiere Pro

Adobe Photoshop

Languages

English

Spanish

